STATISTICAL REPORT

Volume XX

Prepared by John Vosejka

FOREWORD

The 84th season of St. Paul City Conference Boy's Basketball is now history. You were part of that history. My annual report is a look at the statistics of the just-completed season, as well as past seasons. It is the culmination of over 50 hours of compilation, typing, mimeographing and binding.

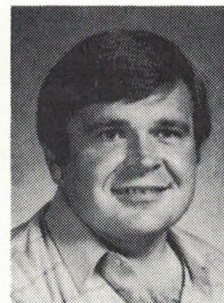

This report is, by no means, the effort of just one individual. My thanks go to every coach, assistant coach and scorer that assisted in submitting the game summary sheets. You made this report possible!

As I have stressed in previous reports, my sole objective in compiling stats for the conference has always been to give every player and coach in the conference some well-deserved recognition and to give special honor to those that excel in a particular category. Remember that a player's ability cannot, and should not, be measured solely on his statistics.

This report marks my twentieth year of doing the St. Paul City Conference stats. Since my report last season, I have completed further research in the early years of this century. Although still incomplete, I have added much information to this year's report which reflects this new-found information. Most notably was the 1910 game in which Humboldt's George Duncan scored 53 points in a game against Cleveland. This record has stood for 80 years! I am hopeful by next season I will be able to complete my research of the first few years of the conference.

This past season saw the first tie for the conference title since 1972 (when Highland Park and Murray shared the title). In the Region 3AA Tournament, Central and Cretin-Derham, after defeating both conference and suburban schools, met again in the finals with Cretin-Derham prevailing; advancing to the State Tournament. Harding's Jim Snidarich became the first Knight to win the scoring title since Pat Bowlin achieved that honor in 1978. Cretin-Derham set a single-game conference record by logging 114 points against Johnson. Como Park's Tyrone Block tallied 35 points in a game against the Govies (the second-most points in one game by a Cougar; Rowland Wright holds the Como Park record with 37). The Cougars finished in third place, their highest finish ever. Humboldt beat Harding twice this season, the first time the Indians achieved that since 1964.

As you peruse the pages of this and previous reports, I hope that it will help you remember the players, teams and records of St. Paul City Conference Boy's Basketball. See ya!

A FINAL WORD

This past season a City Conference basketball coach endured torment and tribulation not generally associated with the problems a coach encounters. Overzealous parents that thought they could judge the talent of their child better than a coach with almost 20 years of experience in both evaluating and training young athletes -- it involved the cutting of a player from a team.

It went beyond the verbal and mental harassment that the coach endured -- he was subjected to litigation and slanderous racial innuendos in the print media. It went so far as the grandfather of the player in question appealing to his fellow school board members; trying to use his influence on the school board to reinstate the player. It's too bad that this now former school board member chose to direct his energy on a personal issue rather than solving the problems of the school district that he was elected.

In my opinion this entire episode was very simple to rule on: it wasn't a black issue or a white issue. It was a stupid issue. One that, fortunately, our judicial system concurred with and upheld the coach's decision to cut the player.

Let's hope that other coaches in the future will not be subjected to this same type of parental harassment.

John
