

St. Paul City Conference

2017-18 BOYS' BASKETBALL

STATISTICAL REPORT

Volume XLVIII

Prepared by John Vosejka

FOREWORD

The 113th season of St. Paul City Conference boys' basketball is now history. You were part of that history. My 48th annual report is a look at some of the statistics of the just-completed season, as well as past seasons. It represents more than 40 hours of compilation, typing, duplicating and binding.

After missing out on the title last year, Johnson regained the championship throne this year. The Vern Simmons-coached Governors have won or shared the title 14 of the past 15 seasons!! This year their undefeated season included a 101-90 thriller over perennial rival Central. It was the first time a Central team had allowed triple digits in a conference game. Speaking of Central, this year they averaged an eye-popping 92.9 points in conference games, surpassing the conference record previously held by Johnson of 92.0 in 2014. Over all, scoring in the conference was up by over 5% this year. The winning teams averaged 83.2 points a game, eclipsing the previous best average of 79.2 in 2012.

For the first time since 1931, there were conference games forfeited due to the use of ineligible players. Three conference games and two non-conference games were affected by forfeits. Let's hope it's another 87 years until the next forfeits!! And just so you know, all of the statistics in those forfeited games count.

On an individual basis, Central junior Daveonte Davis won the scoring title with a fine 24.7 ppg average. Matter of fact, the top five scorers in the conference are all underclassmen. Harding junior Jovan Christian led the conference in making three-point field goals and his conference career total of 85 ranks fourth best all-time. With any luck next year, he should be able to break the record of 105 set by Harding's Steve Priestley during the 1996-1999 seasons. The honor of the best free thrower in the conference belongs to Washington sophomore Drewjuan White when he made 90.0% of his conference free throws. It was only the third time in conference history that a player shot at a 90% or better percentage. Johnson's Kyle Lee finished his conference career as a Governor by making 75.9% of his free throws, good for 22nd best all-time. To all of our outgoing seniors, thanks for the memories and best of luck!!

Don't forget that complete statistics, including this year's All-Conference team, are found on the St. Paul City Conference volunteer community-based athletic website (saintpaulsports.org). You will not only find basketball stats but schedules, results and standings from all conference athletic events.

As you peruse the pages of this and previous reports, as well as the website, I hope that it will help you remember the players, coaches, teams and records of St. Paul City Conference boys' basketball. See ya.

*-won playoff game; from 1913 through 1941, all ties for conference championships were determined by a one-game playoff.
 In 1941, with the conference divided into two divisions, a four-team post-season playoff determined championship.
 There was no competition in the conference in 1907.

No games were scheduled in 1920, 1924-1925 and 1929-1932; in 1934 South refused to play.

In 1948 game was cancelled (Mpls. teacher's strike).

In 1949, with a three-way tie for the conference championship in both Mpls. and St. Paul, it was decided that each co-champion would play and the T.C. title that year was determined by conference that won most games (St. Paul).

In 1971, Mechanic Arts had a schedule conflict in district playoffs.
