FOREWORD

The 15th season of St. Paul City Conference Girl's Basketball is now history. You were part of that history. My annual report is a look at the statistics of the just-completed season, as well as past seasons. It is the culmination of over 100 hours of compilation, typing, mimeographing and binding.

My apologies for the lateness in getting this report out to you. As has been the case the past few years, it takes some coaches a much longer time to get me the game summary sheets. And it was a very busy spring for me.

This report is, by no means, the effort of just one individual. My thanks go to every coach, assistant coach and scorer that assisted in submitting the game summary sheets. You made this report possible!

As I have stressed in previous reports, my sole objective in compiling stats for the conference has always been to give every player and coach in the conference some well-deserved recognition and to give special honor to those that excel in a particular category. Remember that a player's ability cannot, and should not, be measured solely on her stats.

This season Cretin-Derham Hall won its second conference title ever. The title was determined on the final day of the season. Harding's sophomore scoring star Shannon Loeblein set a conference record by averaging 22.5 points per game while breaking a Harding single-game scoring record with her 35 point performance against Como Park. The Knight's Cara Pearson finished second in the conference in scoring making Loeblein and Pearson the first teammates to ever finish first and second in conference scoring. Highland Park won team free throwing honors, ending Harding's nine year reign. Leading Highland Park in free throwing was Jenny Anderson with a fine 85.2% free throwing percentage (the second highest percentage ever). All in all, another exciting year in the St. Paul City Conference!

As you peruse the pages of this and previous reports, I hope that it will help you remember the players, teams and records of St. Paul City Conference Girl's Basketball. See ya!
