STATISTICAL REPORT

Volume XVII

Prepared by John Vosejka

FOREWORD

The 18th season of St. Paul City Conference Girl's Basketball is now history. You were part of that history. My annual report is a look at the statistics of the just-completed season, as well as past seasons. It is the culmination of over 50 hours of compilation, typing, mimeographing and binding.

This report is, by no means, the effort of just one individual. My thanks go to every coach, assistant coach and scorer that assisted in submitting the game summary sheets. You made this report possible!

As I have stressed in previous reports, my sole objective in compiling stats for the conference has always been to give every player and coach in the conference some well-deserved recognition and to give special honor to those that excel in a particular category. Remember that a player's ability cannot, and should not, be measured solely on her statistics.

The conference this season was without one of its pioneers of girl's basketball, Highland Park coach Betty Richardson. Coach Richardson was the first and only coach Highland Park had ever had. Betty accumulated a fine 137-75 conference record over her 17 years as the Scots mentor. Her teams captured four conference crowns as well as sharing two others. She won four Twin Cities titles and led her teams to two State Tournaments (with a second place finish in 1986). Betty now joins my "Hall of Fame" (with Norm Rynard and Ron Causton) entitling her to my annual reports. Best of luck to you Betty, and thanks for the memories.

This season Harding once again went through the conference season without a loss. The Knight's captured Twin Cities Game honors along with the Region 3AA title. The Tom Gunderson coached Knights then went on to the state finals, only to lose to Burnsville in over-time in one of the most exciting championship games in state history. Harding once again featured the 1-2 punch in conference scoring with Shannon Loeblein (see Loeblein tribute on next page) and Cara Pearson. This talented duo has blazed a victorious trail through the conference the past four years and are both soon-to-be Minnesota Gophers. Congratulations to Harding for representing our conference so well. Good luck to all of this year's seniors!

As you peruse the pages of this and previous reports, I hope that it will help you remember the players, teams and records of St. Paul City Conference Girl's Basketball. See ya!
