FOREWORD

The 22nd season of St. Paul City Conference Girl's Basketball is now history. You were part of that history. My 21st annual report is a look at the statistics of the just-completed season, as well as past seasons. It is the culmination of over 50 hours of compilation, typing, duplication and binding.

This report is, by no means, the effort of just one individual. My thanks go to every coach for submitting their home game statistics. You made this report possible!

As I have stressed in previous reports, my sole objective in compiling stats for the conference has always been to give every player and coach in the conference some well-deserved recognition and to give special honor to those that excel in a particular category. Remember that a player's ability cannot, and should not, be measured solely on her statistics.

*This season a different amount of games was played than last year (there were 39 games this season; last year 38). Because of this, direct comparison of statistics from this season to last season was not possible. I calculated the proportional statistic when comparing the two seasons. Any statistics that were calculated this way are noted with an asterisk (*). I hope that sometime in the near future all coaches in the conference will realize the importance of playing a pure double round-robin of conference games. Playing an imbalanced schedule not only deprives teams the chance of playing twelve games (and the chance to win more games) it also denies individuals the chance to enhance seasonal and career totals. To my knowledge we are the only conference in the state where it is acceptable to play a non-balanced schedule.*

Cretin-Derham Hall won an unprecedented fourth straight conference title. The Tom Cody coached Raiders beat North 68-59 in the annual Twin Cities Game, giving St. Paul an overwhelming 17-4 record in this yearly battle of conference champs. Jodi Loeblein, the Raiders' talented senior guard finished her City Conference career winning the scoring title and hitting the most three-point field goals (25) ever in one season. Her 88 career three-pointers in the conference is also a record. Jodi scored 597 career points (329 at Harding; 268 at Cretin-DH) which puts her in 13th place on the all-time conference scoring list. Her sister Shannon is the all-time scoring leader.

As you peruse the pages of this and previous reports, I hope that it will help you remember the players, teams and records of St. Paul City Conference Girl's Basketball. See ya!
