2002
GIRL'S
BASKETBALL

STATISTICAL REPORT

Volume XXVIII

Prepared by John Vosejпка

FOREWORD

The 29th season of St. Paul City Conference girl's basketball is now history. You were part of that history. My 28th annual report is a look at some of the statistics of the just-completed season, as well as past seasons. It is the culmination of more than 50 hours of compilation, typing, duplicating and binding. This is the first report ever generated totally from a computer and not replicated from my trusty old mimeograph machine. I trust you will enjoy the new look.

Cretin-Derham stopped Central's 25-game conference winning streak when the Raiders defeated Central on January 25. The Minutemaids would avenge that loss with a late-season win over Cretin-Derham, thus leaving a tie for the title for only the third time in girl's basketball history. The Raiders would represent St. Paul in the annual Twin Cities Game, losing to Mpls. North (who finished second in the Class AAA State Tournament). The Raiders would capture the Section 2AAAA title and advance to the State Tournament.

This season saw the end to several talented seasons, most notably three that have etched their mark in conference history. Johnson's Christina Ford, the scoring champion last season, would end her Governor career with 808 points, which ranks fifth on the all-time list of scorers. Highland Park's Janet Klees would end her conference career with 782 points, eight shy of the Highland Park record held by Laura Haugen. Her 74 conference three-pointers in her four-year career rank second all-time (Jodi Loeblein from Harding/Cretin-Derham had 88). Janet would win the free throw championship by making 82.8% of her tosses from the charity stripe. For her career, she would make free throws at a 77.9% clip, making her the all-time best free throw shooter in the conference. Senior guard Nakia Carlisle from Central would lead her Central teams to a fabulous 51-5 conference record during her four years in a Minutemaid uniform. She would win the conference scoring title this year, averaging 20.3 points, the first time a Central player would average more than 20 points a game and only the second time Central would boast a scoring champ. In her career, she would amass 948 points in the conference, bettering Harding's Shannon Loeblein's previous best of 900 points. Nakia would also beat the boy's best all-time total of 923 by Steve Priestley of Harding (1996-1999). Congrats to this year's seniors!

Don't forget that complete statistics, including this year's All-Conference team, are found on the St. Paul City Conference athletic web site. The address is www.stpaulathletics.org and you will not only find basketball stats but past results and standings from all conference athletic events.

As you peruse the pages of this and previous reports, as well as the web site, I hope that it will help you remember the players, coaches, teams and records of St. Paul City Conference girl's basketball. See ya.
